Discovering the CATHAR LEGACY

With Author
NITA HUGHES

Discovering the Cathar Legacy

You have been invited to disappear into the past - to an area in the south of France known as the Pays de Cathare.

It is a mystical and magical land full of ancient castles and bastide towns which 800 years ago were home to a fascinating people known as the bonshommes (the “good men”).

These enlightened Christians were later called Cathars, and were tragically massacred during the Albigensian Crusades in the 13th century.

In the records of the Inquisition it is written that the Cathars possessed a treasure described as “... so powerful as to transform the world”.

Now, eight centuries later, you will rediscover this land and these people in the company of your guide, Nita Hughes, author of two acclaimed novels which reveal the history and mystery of this time - Past Recall and The Cathar Legacy (see www.CatharLegacy.com).

Ancient History with Modern Elegance

In the heart of historic Limoux, on the banks of the river Aude, your home is a fully restored 14th century luxury residence.

Your opportunity for adventure awaits in the perfect setting of Montfaucon, where you can fully explore Cathar Country in the South of France, in a beautiful setting, without a care ... sans-souci.

You'll have no need to worry about where to go, what to see, how to get there, or where to eat.

There will be no hassles, such as trying to figure out currency exchange rates, car rentals, or getting to and from the airport.

Instead, you will arrive at a lovely location that you will not want to leave.

From the moment you enter, and are greeted with a delicious glass of Blanquette de Limoux, Montfaucon will wrap you in luxurious care equal to the world's best hotels, while giving you the key to an intimate, elegant, warm hideaway you'll soon call “home”.

Each room is individually designed, equipped with en-suite facilities, internet access, air conditioning, heated towel racks, and other exquisite comforts.

An outdoor patio overlooks the river Aude - the soothing sounds of its waters flowing gently in front of you.

A superb chef, the freshest foods, exquisitely prepared - all await you - whether it is in the comfort of your new “home”, or when you are treated to some of the region's best restaurants. An unforgettable highlight will be a special Medieval Banquet celebration.

Montfaucon's staff will become family as you travel back in time to see the awe-inspiring majesty of places like Montsegur. You will journey through the light and shadows of Aude as its Cathar Country reveals images of a poignant past.

As your guide, Nita Hughes shares her passion and years of research writing her books about the Cathars. Your journeys together will immerse you in a backdrop of ancient abbeys, ruined castles and an in-depth account of the Cathar history, religion, fate and the mysterious treasure. You will explore the Cathar connection to the Templars, Rennes le Chateau, and the legends regarding Jesus and Mary Magdalene. Many questions, many insights and many more topics will surely surface during these special days spent together.

This invitation is offered to a select few - a maximum of ten people sharing five elegant rooms - who come together at a unique time and place to share something very special.
